

OUR ISLAND CONTEMPORARIES

Passed By The Censor.

District Attorney McCann's reputation for judicial poise, sound judgment and impartial vision are so well established that the territory should have entire confidence in his advice to Attorney-general Gregory. — Star-Bulletin.

If a change has been made in the second judgeship of the first circuit, we know of no more acceptable Democrat for Judge Whitney's place than Judge Edging's Maui. He has made good on the Valley Isle and the very fact that the Mauiites do not want to let him is an excellent proof of this. — V. — will welcome him back to Honolulu. — Advertiser.

Here is a "Safety First" law that was passed by a Middle West city council and which assures absolute safety. If it could be adopted in Honolulu, Sheriff Rose would not need additional traffic officers. "When two automobiles approach a crossing coming from different directions, both shall stop, and neither shall go ahead until the other has passed over." — Honolulu.

Jeff McCann for chief justice, Joe Lightfoot for United States district attorney, J. Wesley Thompson snatched from Honolulu to decorate the Maui circuit bench—why not? The Democrats might as well do a good job while they're at it. Their time will soon be up. — Advertiser.

On the Other Islands

Sampan Dynamited.

Two Kona Japanese fishermen by the name of Hayashi and Nakana are under arrest at Hookea under suspicion of having dynamited a large gasoline fishing boat which was totally destroyed at Kawawalo, near Captain Cook's monument a week ago last Monday night.

Little Boys Drowned.

Two Portuguese boys were drowned in the Lualaba reservoir, Kauai, sometime after two o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, says the Garden Island. They were Manuel Cabral Jr., aged seven years and ten months, and Julius Condesay, about seven.

Some Japanese children passing saw the bodies in the shallow water of the reservoir, about six feet apart, and gave the alarm.

It appears that where the ditch enters the reservoir the water is quite deep, and the indications were that the lads, who could not swim, got into deep water at that place.

Many Fail In Teachers' Exams.

Of the 134 persons who took examinations at the Normal school last week for teachers' certificates, about 56 will receive permission to teach, and 73 failed. About 20 of those who passed will be given primary certificates, while about 16 will receive first permits to teach. Twelve will receive second permits, it is estimated. There were eight persons who took and passed a part of the grammar grade certificate examination.

Pineapple Shipments Handicapped.

Because of the uncertainty of the future of shipping facilities, Director Longley, of the Territorial Marketing Division, has not been able to make altogether satisfactory contract with mainland dealers for handling fresh pineapple shipments. This is the report that has come from Mr. Longley, who is now on the coast in an effort to extend the market for fresh fruit. At the present time about all the fresh pineapples are being forwarded that steamers have ventilated space to carry.

Great Northern Would Be Big Asset.

Should the Northern Pacific Steamship company conclude to put the fine new steamer, Great Northern, on the run between San Francisco and Honolulu, it would much more than offset the loss of the Pacific Mail boats to Hawaii, it is said. The five Pacific Mail boats carry about 2500 passengers in the Island trade annually, while the Great Northern on a regular schedule would have accommodation for about three times that number. The general freight agent for the Northern Pacific is expected in Honolulu next month to learn what encouragement in way of freight contracts the Great Northern might secure.

Hawaiian born Chinese between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one are welcome as mess boys in the navy, according to announcement made by Paymaster Corcoran of the Albert. Filipinos for many years have filled the mess positions almost exclusively.

So Maui had to lower her colors to Oahu this year on the polo field. However, there were substantial reasons why the black and gold team were handicapped and next season the results may be reversed. — Hawaii Herald.

The Garden Island, with no saloons on it, is a wonderful example of how booze can be obtained anywhere one goes—provided the price is forthcoming. And yet the Kaula newspaper points the finger of scorn at Kaha! — Hawaii Herald.

"Local importers may well begin at once thinking of the possibilities opened up by the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company," says the afternoon paper. But, it is not the local importers half as much as the local exporters who will have to begin thinking. Transportation companies can hustle on the Coast for freights to Hawaii, but have to depend upon the good will of a very few for freights from Hawaii. What are the exporters going to do? They are the ones who can bring the Great Northern here or keep it away, just as they see fit. — Advertiser.

Acting Director Taylor of the Promotion Committee is sending Hawaii literature to mainland newsmen, hoping to broaden the Honeymoon Trail across the ocean. He might draw attention to the fact that Cupid we have always with us. — Star-Bulletin.

Lahaina Drowning
Due to NegligenceUtilities Board Finds Also That Crew
Deserted Passengers—Concurs in Coroner's Jury Verdict.

Negligence of some of the employees of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company was held responsible by the public utilities commission on Tuesday, for the double drowning at Lahaina Landing, Maui, May 1, of Chow Soy and S. Ushi Kuwaye, deck passengers on the Kilauea.

The commission also sustains the findings of the coroner's jury at the inquest following the accident, in which the boat's crew was declared to have left the passengers to their fate when the boat overturned in the surf. The findings of the commission follow:

"Having reviewed all the evidence, we are satisfied in our own minds that the accident could have been avoided had the boat been on its proper course, and under control of a deck officer. The evidence bears out the fact that the weather on this occasion was not unusual; that no danger signals were displayed; that no precautionary instructions were given to the boat's crew; that the boat was steered to the reef, and on the boat-ster being aware of the fact, that he turned the boat to get on the right course, and in so doing was capsized at the edge of the reef, some 150 yards west of the Lahaina wharf reason for the said capsizing given as being the breaking of a steering oar. Crew Deserts Capsized Boat.

"The crew, with the exception of the boat-ster, deserted the capsized boat without rendering all possible assistance to the passengers; that the boat-ster was warned that he was on the wrong course by a passenger who was thoroughly familiar with the Lahaina waters. However, the boat-ster denies having heard this.

"In the main, the evidence given by persons examined by the public utilities commission corroborates the evidence given at the coroner's inquest held at Lahaina, Maui, on May 6, 1915. Deaths Due To Negligence.

"From the evidence taken at the coroner's inquest, dated May 6, 1915, and at the hearing held by the public utilities commission of Hawaii on May 8, and on July 16 and 19, 1915, we are satisfied that the loss of life on the occasion of said accident on the first day of May, A. D. 1915, thereat inquired into, was due to the negligence of some of the employees of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, Ltd., to wit: the boat-ster and the crew of the boat which was capsized and this commission concurs in the findings of the coroner's jury handed down on the sixth day of May, 1915, at Lahaina, Maui.

Valley Isle Has Good
Program for Next Week

Among the big features expected by the Valley Isle Theatre next week and the week after will be the following: Robert Warwick as "Alias Jimmy Valentine," in 5 parts; "Daughter of the People," a superior feature photograph, with Laura Sawyer, Fred de Belleville and Rob Broderick in this 5 act photo feature adapted from the Broadway success; "The Fairy and the Wolf," in 5 parts by the World Film Corporation, the same company which produced "Money," played at the Valley Isle last Wednesday evening. May Miles Minter and Percy Hettor and Will Archie take the leading roles; "The Fight," another great feature presenting Margaret Wycherly and J. E. Keller in the N. Y. Hudson theatre sensation; "M'Liss," in 5 parts, with Barbara Tennant, by Brethart; "Love Route," an exclusive Paramount feature of thrills, presenting the great Paramount trio Harold Lockwood, Winifred Kingston, and Jack Pickford, pronounced the greatest of all Western dramas.

The exact dates for exhibiting the pictures will be known when the Claudine arrives this morning. "The High Hand," from the novel by Jacques Furtelle, an inspiring romance of love, politics, capital and labor, released on the Alliance program, will likely first appear at Lahaina Lyceum at the end of this week, and will be shown at the Wailuku Orpheum sometime next week. This is a very strong play and comes highly recommended. This will be followed by "The Little Girl That He Forgot," written by Miss Beulah Poyner who also appears in the leading role. This is another five reel feature full of thrills accompanied by deep pathos.

Death of Judge Hardy

Judge Jacob Hardy died in his apartments at Hotel Lihue, Kauai, shortly after 5 o'clock Sunday morning of the infirmities of old age. Death was not unexpected, his physician, Dr. P. L. Putman, having notified his family and friends some days before that the end might come at any time.

The funeral took place from Lihue Union Church at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and was attended by a very large congregation of friends of the deceased from every part of the island.

The late Judge Jacob Hardy was born at Peabody, Mass., in 1827, and graduated from Amherst College in 1849, being a member of the Alpha Delta Phi Society.
